Who Should Take the CCMC (Certificate Course in Maritime Catering) Course?

The CCMC Course is ideal for students who want to build a career in the Merchant Navy's Catering and Hospitality Department. The course trains candidates in food production, housekeeping, hospitality services, hygiene, and shipboard catering operations.

CCMC is Best Suited For:

1. Students Passionate About Cooking and Hospitality

If you enjoy cooking, food service, housekeeping, hotel management, or customer service, CCMC offers an exciting opportunity to apply these skills in an international maritime environment.

2. Students Seeking a Merchant Navy Career Without Engineering

Unlike Marine Engineering or ETO programs, CCMC provides a pathway into the Merchant Navy through the catering and hospitality department.

3. 10+2 Pass Students Looking for Early Employment

Candidates who have completed 12th standard (any stream) and meet DGS eligibility requirements can join the course and begin a maritime career within a relatively short period.

4. Students Who Want International Exposure

CCMC graduates can work on:

- Merchant ships
- Cruise liners
- Passenger vessels
- Offshore installations

This provides opportunities to travel internationally while earning a professional income.

5. Students Interested in Hotel and Catering Operations

The course covers:

- Food production and galley operations
- Food safety and hygiene
- Beverage service
- Housekeeping
- Inventory and provisioning management
- Hospitality services onboard ships

6. Students Looking for Long-Term Career Growth

A CCMC graduate can progress through positions such as:

Trainee Cook / Steward → Cook / Steward → Chief Cook → Catering Officer → Hospitality Manager

Qualities of an Ideal CCMC Candidate

- ✓ Enjoys cooking and food preparation
- ✓ Has a service-oriented attitude
- ✓ Can work in a disciplined environment
- ✓ Is willing to travel and stay at sea for extended periods
- ✓ Enjoys teamwork and interacting with people from different cultures
- ✓ Wants a practical, skill-based career with global opportunities

Why Choose CCMC?

CCMC is the perfect course for students who dream of sailing the world while building a rewarding career in culinary arts, hospitality, and maritime services. It combines professional hospitality training with the adventure and global opportunities of the Merchant Navy.
