8. Who should take this course and why they should take this course

The General Purpose (GP) Rating Course is one of the fastest and most practical pathways to start a career in the Merchant Navy. It prepares students to work in both the Deck Department and the Engine Department of a ship, making them versatile maritime professionals.

1. Quick Entry into the Maritime Industry

The GP Rating course typically takes only 6 months, allowing students to begin their sea career much sooner than many traditional degree programs.

2. Earn While You Learn

After successful completion of the course and obtaining placement onboard, students start earning at a young age while gaining valuable international work experience.

3. Global Career Opportunities

Merchant ships operate worldwide, giving GP Ratings the opportunity to:

- Travel internationally
- Work with multinational crews
- Gain exposure to global maritime operations

4. Hands-On Practical Training

The course focuses on practical skills such as:

- Ship maintenance
- Cargo handling
- Safety procedures
- Firefighting and emergency response

- Engine room operations
- Seamanship and navigation support

5. Excellent Career Growth

A GP Rating can progress through various ranks with sea service and competency examinations:

GP Rating → Able Seaman / Motorman → Bosun / Fitter → Officer Cadet → Deck or Engine Officer

Many successful Merchant Navy officers started their careers as GP Ratings.

6. Attractive Salary and Benefits

Maritime careers offer:

- Competitive salaries
- Tax advantages (subject to applicable regulations)
- Free accommodation and meals onboard
- Medical facilities
- Opportunity to save a significant portion of income
